CASE NO. 3:11-cv-00624-JAG

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Plaintiff Michael T. Dreher and Defendant Experian Information Solutions, Inc. (“Experian”), through their respective attorneys of record, as follows:

WHEREAS, documents, testimony and information have been and may be sought, produced or exhibited by and among the parties relating to trade secrets, proprietary systems, confidential commercial information, confidential research and development, or other proprietary information belonging to Experian and/or credit and other confidential information of Plaintiff and third parties whose information may be disclosed during the discovery process.

THEREFORE, this Court orders as follows:

1. This Order shall govern the use, handling, and disclosure of all documents, testimony or information produced or given in this action that are designated to be subject to this Order.
2. Any documents, testimony or information submitted, either voluntarily or pursuant to any subsequent order, which is asserted in good faith by the producing party or by any other party to contain or constitute information protected by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) or other provision of law, shall be so designated in writing, or orally at a deposition, hearing or trial and shall be segregated from other information being submitted. Materials so designated shall be clearly marked on their face with the legend: "CONFIDENTIAL." Such documents, transcripts, or other materials are referred herein as "CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS."

3. A party wishing to designate portions of a deposition transcript CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to this Order must, within 2 business days from the conclusion of the deposition, order the original or a copy of the transcript of the deposition from the court reporter for regular turnaround. The designating party may designate those portions of the transcript CONFIDENTIAL, in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Order. The designating party shall designate such CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL either on the record or by serving upon all counsel of record via facsimile or other electronic transmission a Notice setting forth the page, line numbers and designation. The designating party must serve such Notice within 14 calendar days after its counsel receives a copy of the deposition transcript. All transcripts will be treated as confidential until the expiration of the 14 day period described in this paragraph. Any portions of a transcript designated as confidential shall thereafter be treated as confidential in accordance with this Order. The parties shall negotiate in good faith to alter the time frames set forth in this paragraph in situations where a more expedited filing of a designated portion of the deposition transcript is required.

4. All CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS, and all information derived therefrom (including but not limited to all testimony, deposition or otherwise, that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any such materials), shall not be used, directly or indirectly, by any person for any business, commercial or competitive purposes or for any purpose whatsoever other than solely for the preparation and trial of this action in accordance with this Order.

5. Subject to paragraph 9, in the absence of prior written permission from the designating party or an order by the Court, CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS shall not be disclosed to any person other than: (i) the parties and their attorneys and support staff employees who perform work tasks related to this case; (ii) qualified persons taking testimony involving such material and necessary stenographic and clerical personnel; (iii) disclosed experts and their staff employed for this litigation; except that a party may disclose its own CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS to an expert who may not be identified as a testifying expert; (iv) present or former employees of the producing party in connection with their depositions in this action, including witness produced pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6); (v) witnesses who are deposed in this action or who are called to testify as witnesses at any hearing in this action, but only in preparation for the deposition or hearing and only as to such material in which the witness is identified as an originator, author, addressee, or recipient of the original or a copy; and (vi) the Court, Court personnel, and members of any jury impaneled to hear this case.

6. Subject to paragraph 9, in the absence of prior written permission from the designating party or an order by the Court any party that seeks to disclose any CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS to any disclosed expert pursuant to paragraph 5(iii) must give notice in writing by facsimile or by electronic transmission to the designating party not less than five (5) days prior to the proposed disclosure. Such notice must include the name of the disclosed expert, the date of the proposed disclosure, a summary of the disclosure, and the expert's educational and employment history. If the designating party objects in good faith to the proposed disclosure, it must give notification in writing by facsimile or by electronic transmission of its objections and the grounds thereof prior to the date of the proposed disclosure. If the dispute is not resolved informally within three (3) days of such notice of objections, the designating party shall submit each objection to the Court, together with a request for a ruling, not later than five (5) days after the expiration of that 3-day period. The dissemination of such CONFIDENTIAL

MATERIALS to such expert shall be withheld pending the Court's ruling.

7. Subject to paragraph 9, CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS shall not be disclosed to any person designated in paragraph 5(iii) unless he or she has executed a written, dated declaration in the form attached as Exhibit A, acknowledging that he or she has first read this Order, agreed to be bound by the terms thereof, agreed not to reveal such CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS to anyone, and agreed to utilize such CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS solely for the purposes of this litigation. All persons to whom CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS are disclosed are hereby enjoined from disclosing same to any other person except as provided in this Order, and are also enjoined from using same except in the preparation for and trial of this case between the named parties thereto. No person receiving or reviewing CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS shall disseminate or disclose them to any person other than those described above in Paragraph 5 and for the purposes specified, and in no event shall such person make any other use of such CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS.

8. Subject to paragraph 9, in the absence of prior written permission from designating party or an order by the Court CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS shall not be disclosed to any person other than counsel of record in this case.

9. In the event that any party disagrees with any designation made under this Order, that party shall bring it to the attention of the designating party within 10 days. The parties shall first try in good faith to resolve the disagreement informally. If the dispute cannot be resolved and the receiving party concludes in good faith that the materials have been improperly classified, the receiving party shall notify the designating party in writing by facsimile or by electronic transmission of its objection, but shall continue to maintain the documents or other information as confidential for ten (10) days after such notice. The designating party shall have the right to move the Court to retain the designated status of such materials. If the designating party files such a motion within the ten (10) day period, the receiving party shall continue to retain the materials as CONFIDENTIAL consistent with the designating party's designation, until the Court has ruled on the designating party's motion.

10. Subject to paragraph 9, any party seeking to file CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS with the Court must contact the designating party (5) days prior to such filing to: (i) provide the designating party with notice that it seeks to file CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS with the Court; and (ii) meet and confer in good faith to determine whether a redacted version of the CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS can be filed with the Court. In the event no agreement is reached for the filing of a redacted version, the party seeking to file such CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS shall file such material in accordance with Local Rule 5(B) & (D). The designating party shall file a Motion to File Under Seal, in accordance with Local Rule 5(C)-(D), simultaneously with the other party's filing. The parties shall work together in good faith to coordinate the filing of all motions and material covered by this paragraph to permit compliance with the Local Rules.

11. Subject to paragraph 9, within sixty (60) days after the conclusion of this case, the parties shall assemble and return to the designating party all materials containing information designated in accordance with paragraph 2, above. The designating party may elect to have its designated materials destroyed rather than returned, in which case the other party shall provide written verification that the materials, including any summaries, extracts, compilations, notes or other attorney work product, have been destroyed.

12. The inadvertent or unintentional disclosure of Confidential Materials by a producing party of information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege or work product immunity shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of the party's claim of privilege or work product immunity, either as to the specific information disclosed or as to any other information relating thereto or on the same subject matter. If a party has inadvertently produced information subject to a claim of privilege or immunity, the receiving party, upon request, or, on its own initiative as such time as the receiving party reasonably and in good faith believes itself to be in possession of inadvertently produced materials subject to a claim of privilege or immunity, whichever occurs first, shall promptly return the inadvertently produced materials, and all copies of those materials that may have been made and any notes regarding those materials shall be destroyed. The party returning such information may move the Court for an order compelling production.

13. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to prevent a party or a nonparty from seeking such further provisions regarding confidentiality as may be appropriate or from seeking an amendment or modification of the existing terms of this Protective Order upon proper notice, motion and showing.

14. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed a waiver by a party of any objections that might be raised as to the relevance or admissibility at trial of evidentiary materials.

15. This Order shall remain binding after the conclusion of this case unless otherwise ordered by the Court, and the Court shall retain jurisdiction over all parties bound hereby for the purposes of enforcing this Order. Each individual signing the acknowledgment attached as Exhibit A agrees to be subject to the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of this Order.

16. This Order does not prevent any party from seeking to seal trial transcripts and/or trial exhibits, including documents previously filed under seal, or from seeking any other similar relief pursuant to Local Rule 5(H).

17. Neither the entry of this Order, nor the designation of any material as "CONFIDENTIAL" nor the failure to make such designation, shall constitute evidence on any issue in this case. The designation of any materials as "CONFIDENTIAL" does not waive that party's objection to any discovery on the ground that it seeks information protected by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) or other provision of law.

18. Nothing herein shall affect or restrict the rights of any party with respect to its own documents or to the information obtained or developed independently of materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this Order.

19. The Court may impose appropriate sanctions for the disclosure of Confidential Information in violation of this Protective Order or for the improper designation of documents or testimony pursuant to this Protective Order.
